COLLECTIONS

The various departments of state during the course of their business transactions have outstanding debts owed them by various corporations, associations and persons with whom they do business. Many times these outstanding debts must be referred to this office for collections, even to the extent of litigation. Principally these collections consist of:

1. Tax collections such as income taxes, estate taxes, numerous license taxes for many departments and taxes to agricultural commissions, all of which are either unpaid or paid with bad checks.
2. Payments due on state timber sales.
3. Payments due for state land sales or condemnations.
4. Brush disposal and forest protection payments due.
5. Service fees due to either the Department of Health for patient care or to the Department of Agriculture for inspections and inoculations of animals, etc.
